1. The Competition

From 9th to 15th May 2022 Quatuors à Bordeaux will be organising the tenth edition of the Bordeaux International String Quartet Competition Vibre !

Founded in 1999 by the cellist Alain Meunier and Bernard Lummeaux, the Competition has established an international reputation for itself in the world of chamber music.

Since 2020, the Modigliani Quartet has been its artistic director, under the overall leadership of Julien Kieffer.

2. General Entry Requirements

The Competition is open to string quartets of every nationality. Each member of the string quartet applying to compete must be under 35 years of age, and the sum of the ages of all four members of the quartet must not total more than 128 years on 14th May 2022.

3. Application procedure and deadlines

3.1 Presentation of competing quartets: information and documents required

Applications for the Competition may only be made online, and for the application to be considered complete, you must:

- a) Fill in the application form online by following this link :
<https://forms.gle/toFGBSqmYGNsUoHH8>
If you do not have access to google form in your country, please contact us by email at the following address:
concours@quatuorsabordeaux.com
- b) Submit the following documents and material in the application form for the quartet :
 - A copy of each member's ID (identity card or passport)

- A current biography of the quartet, including its past and future projects and a biography of its members.
- Three recent photographs (HD 300 dpi) of the quartet in portrait and landscape format
- Two letters of recommendation written for the quartet since 15th May 2021, specifically for the Competition, by two figures of high repute in the musical world.
- If the quartet is registered with one or more agents, works under an exclusive performance contract (in France or abroad) or under similar arrangements, or if it has an exclusive recording contract: a letter from the latter confirming that they agree to the quartet complying with all of the obligations imposed by its participation in the Competition, in particular those specified in Article 7.

3.2 Preselection of the competing quartets: documents required, and technical notes

- Two video files recorded in professional quality, made after 15th May 2021, with a fixed camera and in one complete take only (no new takes between movements), without any editing or alterations of any kind (such alterations being grounds for exclusion from the Competition), of the following repertoire :
 - Schubert, Quartet in C minor, D703 Quartettsatz, omitting the first repeat.
 - a work of their choice, performed in its entirety, lasting between 20 and 30 minutes.
- 2 audio files from the same recordings as the video files in the highest quality possible (at least WAV or 320 MP3 audio file)

Notes for the video and audio preselection files

- you may only use one, fixed camera
- there are no restrictions as to the number of microphones used or their position for this recording.
- both video and audio files must be of professional quality and must not have been cut or edited in any way
- both video and audio files must be of a single take of the same performance of both works
- a very short pause between the two works is acceptable
- no audio files in any format other than WAV or 320MP3 will be accepted

- the video/audio recording must not be made with an audience present, in concert, or in any setting which might generate ambient noise and reduce the quality of the recording

The application form and the additional material listed above must be completed and delivered to the Google form by midnight on Friday 14th January 2022 at the latest.

Any application which is incomplete or is submitted after the deadline will be automatically disqualified. The material submitted will be not be returned to the applicants.

4. Selection and admissions procedure

4.1 Preselection

At the end of the preselection period, the Competition's preselection committee will announce the names of the quartets (a maximum of ten) whose applications have been admitted.

The preselection committee will evaluate the candidates at its entire discretion, using the material provided in their applications. Its choice of candidates selected to compete will be final.

Candidates will be informed of the preselection committee's decision by email before the 5th February 2022.

4.2 Application fees

The quartets admitted to compete must wire their application fees of 150€00 (one hundred and fifty euros), marked for the attention of Quatuors à Bordeaux by 1st May 2022, to the bank account below:

Association Quatuors à Bordeaux

Domiciliation : SG Bordeaux Entreprises (00425) – 28 CRS de l'Intendance – 33000

IBAN : FR76 3000 3003 7000 0372 7831 081

BIC : SOGEFRPP

The wire transfer may be made only on euros, and its title must include the name of the quartet in question.

Proof of the wire transfer must be sent by email to this address:

concours@quatuorsabordeaux.com

5. Competition stages

5.1 Registration of candidates at the Competition venue

All members of each quartet must register at the offices of the Quatuors à Bordeaux association on Sunday 8 May 2022 between 10:00 and 18:00, with current ID.

5.2 Venues

Each round of the Competition will be held at the Auditorium de l'Opéra National de Bordeaux – Salle Henri Dutilleux 9-13 cours Georges Clémenceau, 33000 Bordeaux.

Each round will be open to the public, for free. Tickets will be sold for the Finalists' Gala.

Candidates will perform in each round in alphabetical order of their quartets' names. The results of the draw to establish the starting letter of this order will be announced on the Competition's website.

A full calendar of each round will be established by the team at Quatuors de Bordeaux in consultation with the jury, sent by email to the selected quartets and published on the website www.quatuorsabordeaux.com

5.3 Programme of each round

See Annexe 1

5.4 Announcement of the results

After the semi-final – on Friday 13th May 2022 – the names of the three quartets selected to compete in the final will be announced by the jury once it has deliberated.

The results of the final – programmed for Saturday 14th May 2022 – will be officially announced that evening after the jury has come to its decision.

The three quartets competing in the final will perform on Sunday 15th May 2022 at the Finalists' Gala which concludes the Competition

6. Repertoire

6.1 Repertoire for each round

Preselection

- Schubert, Quartet in C minor, D703 Quartettsatz without the first repeat

7.2 Non-attribution and ties

The jury is at liberty to leave one or more prizes unawarded.
The First Grand Prize is indivisible and may not be awarded jointly.

If the First Grand Prize is not attributed, then the Second Prize may be awarded jointly to a maximum of two finalists.
The Third Prize may be awarded jointly to a maximum of two finalists.

The other prizes are indivisible and may not be awarded jointly

7.3 Forfeit of audiovisual rights

All rights related to audio and video recordings, radio, television or internet broadcasts (including broadcasting and photographic or other reproduction in any present or future form) of all three rounds of the Competition are the property of the Competition's organiser, Quatuors de Bordeaux, and no payment therefore shall be made to contestants.

7.4 Priority of the winners' tour over other engagements

The winner of the First Prize undertakes to comply with the agreements entered into with the Competition's partner agent in charge of the tour's organisation barring different agreements reached by the organizing agency and the representative of the winning Quartet.

These agreements shall have priority over any other engagements entered into previously either by the quartet itself or by its agent if it has one.

This agreement shall run for two years starting from the season following this edition of the Competition (eg, September 2022 to September 2024 for the 2022 edition).

This agreement shall cover the following countries: France, Great Britain, Germany, Austria, Hungary, Switzerland, Belgium, Luxembourg, The Netherlands, Denmark, Spain, Portugal, Italy, Japan and Canada.

7.5 Announcement of the winners

The announcement of the winners and the prize-giving will take place at the end of the Finalists' Gala concert.

When communicating the Competition results, by whatever medium, the winners must comply with the jury's official decision by specifying the prize in question.

7.6 Invitations for the semi-finalist quartets to the masterclass programme

The jury may, at its own discretion, offer a maximum of two quartets who did not reach the Final the opportunity to take part in the programme of Masterclasses for young string quartet players during the May 2023 Vibre ! Festival.

7.7 Performance engagements for quartets which do not reach the Final

As part of the concert programme presented alongside the Competition rounds, any of the quartets which do not reach the Final may be invited to perform in a concert in Bordeaux or the surrounding region (such engagements to be remunerated).

7.8 Henle offer

Each participant in the competition will receive a voucher for the Henle Library App for each participant worth 50.00 Euros each (free credits).

8. Jury

8.1 Jury members

The jury, invited by the artistic directors, consists of seven members, one serving as President.

The jury may not include persons with family or other close links to any competitor.

Each member of the jury will be required to submit a declaration concerning any personal or professional acquaintance or family ties with the competitors, the form in question to be supplied by Quatuors à Bordeaux.

Quatuors à Bordeaux reserves the right to replace any member of the jury who for any urgent reason may be unable to exercise their function.

(Composition 2022: see Annexe 2)

8.2 Jury's deliberation method and voting procedure

Quatuors à Bordeaux is responsible for the rules which apply to the deliberation and voting methods of the jury.

The jury's decision is final and not subject to appeal.

8.3 Duration of the jury's function

The jury will be constituted on 9th May 2022. It is considered dissolved once the results of each edition of the Competition have been announced.

8.4 Presence to assist jury

The director of Quatuors à Bordeaux may be present without voting rights while the jury is in session.

The operational coordination of the jury, and its archives, are the responsibility of Quatuors à Bordeaux.

9. Preselection of participants

The Quatuors à Bordeaux team will receive and examine preselection applications and ensure that they meet all the necessary conditions – complete information and material, compliance with deadlines, respect of technical and repertoire requirements.

The Competition's artistic director shall appoint a preselection committee of three, of whom none shall be members of the jury.

The preselection committee is responsible for evaluating the material presented by candidates seeking to compete.

(Composition 2022: see Annexe 2)

10. Candidates' transport and accommodation costs

Quatuors à Bordeaux, as organiser of the Competition, will be responsible for the qualifying quartets' accommodation costs from 8th to 15th May 2022 inclusive.

The association will contribute to the candidate quartets' transport costs (reimbursement upon presentation of proof of payment) up to:

- €500 maximum (including an extra seat for the cello) for a quartet travelling from a European country (see Annexe 4 for the list)
- €1,000 maximum (including an extra seat for the cello) for a quartet travelling from a country not included in the list of European countries in Annexe 4.

11. Jurisdiction

- a) The Competition rules are available in two languages (English and French), on the understanding that only the French text can be referred to for legal purposes.
- b) Quatuors à Bordeaux reserves the right, at its own discretion and whatever the circumstances, to decide to cancel the Competition and to take any decisions relating to organisation and participation in the Competition.
- c) A preselected quartet which fails to compete at any stage in its original form at inscription (ie, if a player is replaced) will be disqualified.
- d) Any legal proceedings will fall under the jurisdiction of the courts of Bordeaux.
